

The Post Box Lounge Bar

Welcome to The Post Box Lounge Bar, where you can soak up the nostalgia of an era when conversation was an art form and people took the time to write letters by hand. The charm of the Post Box lies in its quirky touches and old world style, a tribute to the fine history and heritage of Port Louis, right here on the Labourdonnais' doorstep at the Postal Museum.

Relax in our sumptuous vintage interiors, enjoy great conversation and electro swing music and even send a postcard to anywhere in the world courtesy of the Hotel - from the Royal Mail post box, for a moment never to be forgotten! (Recipients can enjoy a complimentary signature cocktail when they present their postcard to us.)

Bienvenue au Post Box Lounge Bar, où vous pourrez vous imprégner de la nostalgie d'une époque où la conversation était un art et où les gens prenaient le temps d'écrire des lettres à la main. Le charme du Post Box réside dans son décor vintage et ses petites touches originales qui rendent hommage au passé et au patrimoine de Port Louis - histoire à découvrir au Musée de la Poste, situé à quelques encablures du Labourdonnais.

Détendez-vous dans nos somptueux intérieurs d'époque pour bavarder ou vibrer au son de la musique swing electro. Ici, pour passer des moments encore plus inoubliables on peut même envoyer une carte postale à qui on veut dans le monde entier grâce à la boîte aux lettres du Royal Mail sur place. C'est offert par l'hôtel ! (A chaque carte postale présentée, le destinataire se voit offrir un cocktail gratuit).

Vintage Classics

Classic Vesper Martini

Rs 350 € 9

Bombay sapphire gin, Cocchi Americano,
Grey Goose vodka

The drink was invented and named by Ian Fleming in the 1953 James Bond novel Casino Royale. A Vesper differs from Bond's usual cocktail of choice, the martini, in that it uses both gin and vodka and a sweet vermouth instead of the usual dry vermouth, and a lemon peel instead of an olive. Although there is a lot of discussion on the Vesper, it is only ordered by Bond once throughout Fleming's novels.

Stamp & Seal

Rs 380 € 10

Red label, lemon juice, simple syrup, ginger ale, angustura bitter

Johnnie Walker Red Label, known as a nine-year-old aged scotch for mixing with soda. Age statements was abandoned due to whisky shortages after World War II, but were restored in the late 1970s a decade after Johnnie Walker became the world's most popular Scotch.

Mint Julep

Rs 380 € 10

Bulleit, mint leaves, simple syrup, lemon juice

The mint julep as we know it became the official drink of the Kentucky Derby in 1938. By then, Kentucky bourbon, distilled far from the sugar-rich Caribbean, had replaced its more saccharine cousins as the main spirit in the cocktail.

Negroni

Rs 400 € 10

Hendricks, campari, sweet vermouth

Iconic bartender Gary Regan, a Brit who now makes his home in the Hudson Valley, is the go-to man for Negroni history. He recently published The Negroni: Drinking to La Dolce Vita, which traces the drink back to Florence in 1919.

Bijou

Rs 420 € 11

Hendricks, sweet vermouth, chartreuse, orange bitter

Bijou means "jewel" in French. It is said to have been invented by Harry Johnson, author of the "Bartenders Manual". This cocktail is called Bijou because it combines the colors of three jewels: gin for diamond, vermouth for ruby, and chartreuse for emerald.

This recipe is also one of the oldest in the manual dating back to 1890s.

Timeless Classics

The post box	Rs 350	€ 9
New grove post box rum, rosemary syrup, lemon juice, ginger beer
In 1852, Dr Pierre Charles François Harel developed the concept of local distillation of rum in Mauritius, using only the finest local ingredients from his vast Pamplémousses Garden Estate to create a liquor of outstanding quality and pure refinement.
Feel the fire pit	Rs 350	€ 9
Chamarel paille, amaretto, grants, orange slice, orange juice, sprite
Sugar cane was introduced from Java into Mauritius under the Dutch (1598-1710) to make mainly an alcoholic drink through fermentation. Amaretto is a sweet Italian liquor that originated in Saronno in which the feeling of romance coming of the Italian, add some whisky to make it keep strong, some more sour never less.
Just in thyme	Rs 360	€ 9
Hendricks, rose syrup, cucumber, thyme, lemon juice, tonic water
Most loved spirit of the decade... Gin, due to its diverse complexity of flavours derived from natural herbs and spices. It's the bartender dream spirit with adding some extra ingredients to make it be his own creation cocktail such as a Just in thyme.
Cosmopolitan	Rs 350	€ 9
Vodka smirnoff, triple sec, cranberry juice, lemon juice
This descendent of the 1930's Classic Daisy – Gin, Cointreau, lemon juice and raspberry syrup – The "Cosmo" was reinvented in the mid 80's with the introduction of Smirnoff Vodka.
Moscow mule	Rs 360	€ 9
Vodka smirnoff, lemon juice, ginger beer
The birth place of "Little Moscow" was in New York's Chatham Hotel in 1941. Three men sitting in the bar, Jack, John and Rudolph. Jac produced beverages, including ginger beer. John was a copper smith and Rudolph was the president of Smirnoff. What they discovered was not a joke.
Daiquiri	Rs 360	€ 9
Green island 3D, lemon juice, simple syrup, lime juice
July 19 th is National Daiquiri Day! From fluorescent-colored, a rim of paprika to sticky and sweet, the Daiquiri has morphed on many forms — and not always for the better — since its introduction during the waning years of the 19 th century. So grab your shaker and raise a glass to the History of the Daiquiri cocktail!

Margarita Olmeqa Tequila Bianco, Triple sec, fresh lemon and lime juice As cocktail historian David Wondrich points out in his book Imbibe!, while the name is vague and the actual ingredients difficult to discern, an easy search through whatever people used before Google Translate reveals the Spanish word for daisy is "margarita".	Rs 360	€ 9
Long island ice tea New grove silver rum, vodka smirnoff, hendricks, tequila, triple sec, lemon juice, coke Some common myths surrounding the origin of the Long Island Iced Tea include Invented by housewives who used a little of each type of alcohol in their cabinets so their husbands wouldn't notice.	Rs 360	€ 9
Pina Colada New grove silver rum, malibu, pineapple juice, fresh cream, pina syrup One of the world's most favourite mixed drinks, the piña colada, was born in Puerto Rico, but the identity of the bartender who first mixed up the iconic rum-based cocktail remains a point of contention.	Rs 370	€ 9
Mojito New grove silver rum, mint leaves, lime wedges, simple syrup, soda water, angustura bitter "A mojito is one of Cuba's oldest cocktails — it comes from the African word mojo, which means to place a little spell." — The Havana Journal. As history has shown, a spell has indeed been cast. Legendary American author Ernest Hemingway loved mojitos and helped make them famous with his presence at Havana's La Bovedita del Medio, as well as in Key West, Florida.	Rs 370	€ 9
Harbour view Beluga noble, white cacao, kalua, citrus honey, fresh cream, cacao powder The Mariinsk distillery that created Beluga was formed in 1900 in Siberia. The syrupy sweet chocolate liqueur we know as creme de cacao has a rich and murky consistency. The famed Mexican coffee-and-sugar-cane spirit was first invented by Blanco in 1930 and a final touch of citrus honey.	Rs 470	€ 12

Cigars

Romeo y Julieta No.2 Rs 860 € 22

Still mild, this cigar is faster smoke than its bigger brothers. Wood flavors are infused with tangy fruit/grass notes.

Origin: Cuba | Shape: Coronitas | Manufactured: Machine Made | Ring: 178 mm

Partagas Serie D No.4 Rs 1,550 € 39

Intense notes of rich tobacco turn into a complex cocktail of spiced chocolate, vanilla and sandalwood

Origin: Cuba | Shape: Robuste | Manufactured: Hand Made | Ring: 50 mm

Romeo & Julieta No.1 Rs 960 € 24

Medium in strength and characteristic Romeo y Julieta style. Robust and complex offering a tangy mild wood and leather flavor with none of them standing out in particular.

Origin: Cuba | Shape: Cremas | Manufactured: Machine Made | Ring: 40 mm

Montecristo Petit Edmundo Rs 1,290 € 32

This new cigar is the little brother of Montecristo Edmundo. Small as it is, just 4 1/3 long (but same ring gauge as Montecristo Edmundo, 52), this tiny treasure offers a very strong tobacco taste with balanced flavors.

Origin: Cuba | Shape: Petit Edmundo | Manufactured: Hand Made | Ring: 52 mm

Montecristo Petit Tubos Rs 1,180 € 30

The Montecristo Petit Tubos cigar is the world's most popular cigar. The cigar is incredibly easy drawn and has a light to medium strength along with flavors that are not too overpowering.
